
Saturday, May 17, 3 - 5 p.m.

National Japanese American Historical Society

1684 Post Street in SF Japantown
(415) 921-5007; www.njahs.org

JOIN THE NATIONAL JAPANESE AMERICAN HISTORICAL SOCIETY, HYPHEN MAGAZINE AND THE NICHU BEI TIMES FOR A FORUM ON HOW MASS MEDIA — PRINT, FILM, TELEVISION, ADVERTISING AND THE INTERNET — REPRESENTS INDIVIDUALS OF MIXED HERITAGE, AND WHAT THESE REPRESENTATIONS REVEAL ABOUT SOCIETY'S ATTITUDES REGARDING RACE AND CULTURE.

*In conjunction with the current NJAHS exhibit
"Re-envisioning Community: Hapa Issues Forum, 1992-2007"*